

GUIDE gold coast

WHIT & WHIM
FIFTY CURATED
SELECTION ITEMS
AND MORE HERE

Specialty Finds

FIND ONE-OF-A-KIND TREASURES AT THESE EXCLUSIVE BOUTIQUES. BY MARISA MALANGA

Ambala Jewelers

Established in 1976, Ambala Jewelers offers an eclectic array of fine jewelry, tableware, and gifts as well as its own bridal jewelry line. Meet with the boutique's skilled jewelers to customize your own piece of perfection if you cannot find exactly what you're looking for among the store's varied selection.

26 Glen Cove Road, Roslyn Heights, 516-626-2232

jewelry boutique is run by owner Christie Lauren, who crafts custom headpieces, veils, and jewelry-outfitted with the finest Swarovski crystals. Lauren's attention to detail is demonstrated through her artistry, and her work has been seen on celebrities such as Danielle Jonas.

3173 Northern Blvd., Manhasset, 316-889-7000; christielauren.com

Françine's Fashion

intimate dinner with friends or a romantic evening out, you can find suitable pieces within the store's line of customized heavy dresses, coats, and jumpuits. 3 Glen St., Huntington, 629-4364

made a name for itself. Enjoy a relaxed and personalized shopping experience with the help of a knowledgeable salesperson, or simply browse the extensive inventory, which includes outerwear, shoes, handbags, jewelry,

Whit & Whim

Housed in a historic 1885 house that has recently been restored, Whit & Whim features a vast collection of contemporary and vintage goodies. "Every item in the shop has a story and is beautifully curated," says owner Laurie Scheinman.

"Wainscoted walls, vintage playing-card hangtags, craft boxes, and burlap gift sacks set the tone for a modern-day yesteryear."

6 Carlton Ave., Port Washington, 516-944-9200; whit-and-whim.com H

LOOK
LIKE