

Local Artist Shows At wit & whim

Wit & whim, Port Washington's philanthropic life and style shop, has been home to the multi-layered, silk-screen artwork of Port Washington resident Dominick Rapone during February. The store also collaborated with Rapone to create a variety of merchandise, including men's and women's t-shirts, totes and platters, that bear his artwork. Rapone's work reflects his interpretation of events in his life. A meet-the-artist night will be held Wednesday, March 5, from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m.
