Stores Team Up for Senior Citizens

BY PORT NEWS STAFF

PORTWASHINGTON@ANTONNEWS.COM

A unique charity shopping event will take place on Dec. 10 and 12, when nine stores will donate a percentage of their sales to the Port Washington Senior Citizens Center.

On Tuesday, Dec. 10, the event will take place at Port Commons and upper Main Street. Participating stores are: 16 Handles, Impulse, Linda's g2g, Smashburger and Vintage Grapes. On Thursday, Dec. 12, the following stores on lower Main Street and Port Washington North will participate in this event: Ayhan's Shish Kebab, Moo La La, Port Washington Bicycles and wit & whim. Shoppers must tell the salespeople they are shopping for the Port Washington Senior Citizens Center in order for the center to receive a donation from the sale.

The donations will help support additional programming at the Senior Citizens Center located at 80 Manorhaven Boulevard.

For more information about the diverse programming offered at the Senior Center, call 883-6566 or email pwseniorcitizenscenter@verizon.net.

Art classes at the Senior Citizens Center help students hone their painting skills. Their artwork is displayed at the Port Washington Public Library throughout June each year.
